

Former Assistant Director and Deputy GC of CFPB, Joins Stroock in Washington

News

Quyen Truong, former assistant director and deputy general counsel of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB), has joined Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP as a partner in the firm's Washington, DC office.

Akerman Adds CFPB Regulatory and Enforcement Lawyers

NEWS

Thomas Kearney and Mary (Molly) Calkins join the firm's Washington, D.C., office, working in federal and state compliance as well as operational support capabilities.

CFPB Proposes Banning Use of Pre-Dispute Arbitration Agreements in Consumer Class

Actions

Article

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau has proposed prohibiting application of pre-dispute arbitration agreements to class litigation involving certain consumer financial products, according to a report published by Carlton Fields on its website.

Pre-Dispute Arbitration Clauses: Taking the Alternative Out of Dispute Resolution

White Paper

Binding individual customers to mandatory arbitration before a dispute arises, rather than encouraging its voluntary use, is harmful to public interest and consumer protection.