

HSBC Says It Successfully Defended Attack on Online Banking System

NEWS

HSBC customers were locked out of internet banking for several hours after the company was targeted by online criminals in a denial of service attack.