

Enforceable Contract for Sale of Family-Owned Business or Just Agreement to Agree?

Insight

Parties to negotiations involving the sale of family-owned business stock or assets should be cautious in their drafting to ensure that it is clear to all parties what documents are intended to create enforceable rights and obligations, warns Murtha Cullina.