

Register for the Healthcare Enforcement Compliance Institute

Event, Oct. 29-Nov. 1, 2017

The event will give participants the opportunity to go beyond legal analysis, learn how to implement systems that ensure the law is followed, and gain practical advice from experts in a one-of-a-kind forum

Healthcare Developer Fined $155 Million for Lying About Compliance

News

The settlement marks the first time an electronics health records vendor is being charged for the truthfulness and accuracy of representations made when seeking government certification, reports HIT Consultant.

How States Are Using the Law

to Bring Drug Executives to Heel

News

The generic drug industry has come under fire the last couple of years because of staggering price increases, but now generic drug executives can expect to face tougher legal repercussions, reports MedCity News.

2016 HIPAA Year in Review: Audits, Fines, and Enforcement Trends

Event, Jan. 25, 2 p.m. EST

Compliancy Group will present a complimentary webinar examining the major breaches and fines that made 2016 the most expensive year on record for HIPAA fines and enforcement.

Actiance Announces Compliance Platform for Healthcare, Pharmaceutical Industries

News

As new communications channels and networks become available to the healthcare and pharmaceutical industries, records management responsibilities become even more critical.