

Executive Fired After Opposing 5,000% Drug Price Hike

News

A former vice president of the drugmaker that drew national criticism for raising the price of a parasite-fighting medication by 5,000% testified he was fired weeks after telling CEO Martin Shkreli the increase “was not justified,” reports USA Today.

---

Celgene Announces Settlement of REVLIMID Patent Litigation

NEWS

Celgene has agreed to provide Natco with a license to Celgene’s patents required to manufacture and sell an unlimited quantity of generic lenalidomide.