

Arkansas Teacher Retirement System Reaches $642M Settlement in Pension Loss Lawsuit

LitigationThe Arkansas Teacher Retirement System on Friday unanimously approved a $642 million settlement with Allianz, the German finance company it sued for losing $774 million of its

Lawyers Get Ready for First-Ever Supreme Court Oral Arguments by Phone

News

The Supreme Court's announcement this week that it will hold oral arguments via teleconference for the first time in its history has a small group of America's top attorneys prepping for the most important phone calls of their careers.

Financial Tug-Of-War Emerges

Over California Fire Victims' Settlement

News

The settlement leaves open just how much would be used to compensate victims, their lawyers and federal and state agencies for the money they spent on rescue and recovery operations.