

Ethics and eDiscovery: Do You Meet Expectations of Competence?

On-Demand

D4, LLC has posted an on-demand webinar that explores ethical duties of counsel to understand clients' use of technology, to find the right ESI, and to negotiate scope effectively.

Industry Trends in the U.S. Wind Energy Sector

On-Demand

A complimentary on-demand webinar reviews the findings of two recent U.S. Department of Energy studies: the 2014 Wind Technologies Market Report and the 2014 Distributed Wind Market Report.

Claims Webinar Series: Contract Terminations

On-Demand

In the course of contract performance, a number of issues may arise between the contractor and the government, including differing interpretations over specifications, changes to the scope of work, modification of terms and conditions, funding issues, and prevailing wage adjustments.

Energy Bankruptcy Filings: The Risks and Opportunities

On-Demand

Steptoe & Johnson has posted the presentation slides from a recent webinar on the issues of oil and gas rights in a bankruptcy proceeding including the risks and the opportunities in restructuring and acquiring challenged assets in today's ever-changing market.

Using eDiscovery Tools to Build Your Case

On-Demand

Technology helps attorneys understand their case, test theories and develop litigation strategies – as soon as data is collected, says Daegis Inc.

Avoid Misrepresentation Claims Through Contractual Exculpatory Clauses

On-Demand

As a part of its Homebuilder Series, Bilzim Sumberg has posted a free on-demand webinar that discusses protecting your company from misrepresentation claims through contractual exculpatory clauses.

Back to Basics on Background Checks

On-Demand

Atlanta-based First Advantage has posted a free on-demand webinar designed to teach employers the full fundamentals for how to build the best background checks.