

Recovery of Contractual Attorneys' Fees for Tort and Contract Claims

Insight

Low, Ball & Lynch discusses a case in which the California Court of Appeal addresses whether attorneys' fees can be awarded when a plaintiff alleges both tort and contract causes of action and dismisses the entire complaint before trial.

Judge Dismisses Lawsuit Against Lawyer Over Chesapeake Legal Fees

News

A state district judge in Fort Worth shut down the litigation against Dan McDonald in which attorney Jim Ward was seeking up to a third of the millions in legal fees stemming from the Chesapeake case.