Tarter Krinsky & Drogin Expands its Italy Practice and Opens its First West Coast Office in Los Angeles with the Addition of Marco Giovine

Tarter Krinsky & Drogin is excited to announce the launch of the firm's first West Coast office in Los Angeles with the addition of counsel Marco Giovine to its Italy Practice. Marco's addition and the new Southern California location deepens the resources available to our clients as we expand our geographical footprint.

Giovine is a corporate transactional attorney who advises domestic and multinational clients on a broad range of matters including mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, contracts, commercial transactions, and corporate governance. With a particular focus on clients who have a nexus to Italy, he draws on his deep understanding of cross-border transactions and the unique issues inherent in conducting business in the United States.

Giovine earned his law degree from the University of Padua in Italy and LL.M. degrees from Erasmus University Rotterdam in the Netherlands and UCLA in Los Angeles. Bilingual in Italian and English and fluent in Spanish, he is admitted to practice in California and New York. Prior to joining Tarter Krinsky & Drogin, he founded and managed the Los Angeles office of a boutique international law firm and, before that, practiced at Hogan Lovells and DLA Piper in Milan, Italy.
