

TD Bank NSF Fees $41M Class Action Settlement

“TD Bank agreed to pay over $41 million as part of a class action settlement to resolve claims that it wrongfully charged non-sufficient funds fees, or NSF fees, after retrying transactions. The settlement benefits consumers who were charged retry NSF fees by TD Bank during various time periods,” reports Top Class Actions in their blog.

“Eligible periods vary based on state according to applicable laws. For example, the Illinois class period starts on Nov. 20, 2008 while the Colorado class period starts on Nov. 30, 2015. A full list of each state’s Class periods can be found in the settlement agreement. TD Bank is a North American bank that serves consumers across the US.”
