Temporary Employees and the Employer Mandate

Benefit Express has posted a free on-demand webinar on dealing with health care reform as it relates to temporary workers.

Topics include: when temporary employees become your employees, the factors the government uses to determine employment status, the steps you can take to avoid these employees becoming your employees, and consequences under Health Care Reform if it is determined that they are your employees.

Watch the on-demand webinar.