

Tesla Loses Its Third General Counsel in the Last Year

Tesla's general counsel is leaving the company, meaning the company has now lost three general counsels in the past year.

CNBC reports that Jonathan Chang, who was GC at Tesla since February, has taken a position as general counsel at SambaNova.

Chang's predecessor, Dane Butswinkas, left the company in February 2019 after just two months on the job because he was not a good cultural fit, a source familiar with the situation told CNBC at the time.
