

Texas Bankruptcy Law Firm Forshey Prostok L.L.P. Adds Additional Firepower

FORT WORTH, Texas – The complex bankruptcy and restructuring law firm Forshey Prostok L.L.P. is pleased to announce the addition of Michael D. “Mickey” Ricketts as Of Counsel in the firm’s Fort Worth headquarters.

Ricketts, who handles bankruptcy and commercial litigation, has also done extensive work as an intellectual property litigator, successfully representing plaintiffs and defendants in complex patent infringement cases across a wide range of industries, including 3D computer graphics, augmented reality, GPS-based asset tracking, and hand tools. Before becoming a lawyer, Ricketts was a software/systems engineer in the U.S. defense industry.

Learn more about Ricketts.

Ricketts holds dual B.A. degrees in computer science and music from Southern Methodist University (2001) and received his J.D. from SMU’s Dedman School of Law in 2010. He is licensed to practice law in Texas and is admitted to practice before the U.S. District Courts for the Northern, Eastern, and Western Districts of Texas. He is also a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute.