The 2019 Working Mother 60 Best Law Firms for Women

Results of a survey by Working Mother show some advance for women in the number of equity partners and in the number of women who rank among their firms' most highly compensated partners.

Some of the key initiatives the survey examined include paid parental leave, the use of reduced schedules, parent-resource groups, and mentoring and sponsorship of female lawyers.

Working Mother collaborated with the ABA Journal as a knowledge partner in recruiting firms and publicizing results.
