The Ebola Crisis and Global Health Law

The Network for Public Health Law presents a free on-demand webinar discussing the international public health community's response to the Ebola crisis.

Global health law leader Lawrence O. Gostin also will discuss vulnerabilities in the United States and examine the gaps and challenges currently existing in global preparedness and response systems.

This webinar is a part of the Public Health Law Webinar Series, focused on providing the public health community with practical knowledge on emerging topics. The series is sponsored by American Society of Law, Medicine & Ethics; Network for Public Health Law; and Public Health Law Research Program.
