

The Hanover Insurance Group, Inc. Appoints Dennis F. Kerrigan General Counsel

"The Hanover Insurance Group, Inc. announced Dennis F. Kerrigan has been appointed executive vice president and general counsel, effective immediately, following the retirement of longtime general counsel, J. Kendall Huber. In this role, Kerrigan is responsible for The Hanover's legal, regulatory and government affairs, as well as compliance, state filings, securities, and corporate governance matters," posted in Cision PR Newswire's News Releases by Emily P. Trevallion and Abby M. Clark.

"Kerrigan brings decades of corporate counsel, insurance and global legal experience to the company. He joins The Hanover after more than 10 years as general counsel for Zurich North America, where he led the legal, compliance, government and industry affairs, security and regulatory affairs groups."

"Kerrigan previously served as a partner in the global litigation department of an international law firm, representing Fortune 500 companies in a variety of matters, including trials, arbitrations, governmental investigations, regulatory proceedings and internal investigations."
