

The Implications of COVID-19 on Contract Law

“For nearly a year, the world has battled a pandemic defined as Coronavirus-19 or COVID-19. This virus has caused enormous damage worldwide in terms of human life, health, and economic devastation. This destruction has been acutely felt here in the United States, with the death of hundreds of thousands of Americans and the long-term illness of millions, as well as severe economic loss due to factors beyond the control of those who have been affected,” writes RBR-TVBR in their Washington Beat.

“The COVID-19 pandemic also has had a significant effect on the U.S. legal system.”
