

The Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company Names Two General Counsels

“The Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company (Penn Mutual), a Fortune 1000 company, announced the promotion of Frank Best to General Counsel, Insurance and Corporate Secretary and the promotion of Ann-Marie Mason to General Counsel, Asset Management and Broker/Dealer. These newly-created positions provide increased focus on specific areas of the organization and strengthen the company’s approach to providing legal guidance and support to corporate and field offices,” posts Penn Mutual in their press releases.

“Best will be responsible for all legal matters associated with the Penn Mutual family of insurance companies. Throughout his 46-year career with the Penn Mutual Law Department, Best has been recognized as a true subject matter expert.”

“Mason will be responsible for all legal matters related to wholly-owned subsidiaries Penn Mutual Asset Management and HTK. Mason joined Penn Mutual in 2019 as Vice President and Head of Shared Services–Enterprise Compliance after 11 years with FINRA where she rose to the role of Vice President and Counsel. At FINRA she served as a key source of legal and regulatory expertise on subject matters affecting Registered Investment Advisers and Broker Dealers. She also exclusively handled all of FINRA’s high impact, expedited litigation matters.”
