

Titans Extend Contracts for GM Robinson, Coach Vrabel

“The Tennessee Titans wasted little time making sure general manager Jon Robinson and coach Mike Vrabel stick around for years to come. Barely two weeks after their season ended, the Titans announced Tuesday contract extensions for both Robinson and Vrabel. Terms were not released,” reports Teresa M. Walker in Your Basin.

“Controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk said in a statement she has seen the team improve yearly with Robinson and Vrabel. I know their singular goal is to deliver a championship for our fans, Strunk said. Together they have developed a culture within our organization that has been essential to our success. Their values align with mine.”

Read the article.