

Top 25 Biglaw Firm Makes Another Salary Move

“Biglaw is in the middle of a hot lateral market. That means that firms have to be willing to pay the tippy top of market compensation plus other perks to recruit and retain the associates that keep the deals/cases moving. Goodwin Procter a firm making $1,486,263,000 in 2020 gross revenue,” reports Kathryn Rubino in Above The Law.

“Making it 23rd on the Am Law 100 already announced raises way back in January when the Milbank scale was the top of the market. Of course, since then both Davis Polk and Cravath have taken a crack at raises, and now that higher Cravath scale is what’s holding sway. And now that the dust seems to have settled, Goodwin is raising.”

Read the article.