

Top 30 Biglaw Firm Sends Bonuses to the Moon for Associates with Sky-High Billable Hours

“Some elite Biglaw firms are known for offering market-beating bonuses for their biggest billers. Year after year, they prove that they’re willing to pay for the most committed legal talent by adding tens of thousands of dollars to their regular year-end bonus payouts. Hot on the heels of announcing that,” reports Staci Zaretsky in Above The Law.

“It would allow its lawyers to work remotely, indefinitely, from anywhere in the country, the top 30 Am Law firm unveiled its 2021 bonus matrix. As usual, there are some pretty big rewards in store for those who truly dedicated their lives to the firm. Associates who billed between 2100 and 2399 hours will receive a bonus equal to the market.”
