

Top Ten Mistakes in I-9 and E-Verify Compliance

☒ Equifax will present a complimentary webinar on the top risks in the I-9 and E-Verify process and how employers can avoid them. The webinar will be Wednesday, Sept. 10, at 2 p.m. Eastern time.

Equifax says the Form I-9 isn't long, but it's jam-packed with risk. Additionally, E-Verify is auditing your data, conducting reviews of your E-Verify practices and when appropriate refers cases to the other agencies for audit. How can an HR professional make sure the entire hiring practice is compliant? In a world where audits are more frequent, penalties can be expensive, and brand recognition can be tarnished by even the smallest of irregularities, it's wise to know the top errors to watch for in I-9 and E-Verify compliance. Even seemingly small errors can leave your company exposed to fines and penalties, Equifax says on its website.

This session will explore the Top 10 most common errors in I-9 and E-Verify compliance and offer compliance hints and remediation steps to help make sure your workplace avoids these lurking traps.

Get more information and register for the webinar.