

Tractor Supply Names Noni Ellison Senior VP, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary

Tractor Supply Company announced that Noni Ellison has been named Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary. She “will join the Company’s Executive Committee, effective January 11, 2021. Ellison will report directly to Hal Lawton, President and CEO of Tractor Supply. In addition to managing the legal department, Ellison will also lead the Company’s risk management, government relations, licensing and quality assurance/customs compliance, as well as the Company’s environmental, social and governance efforts. Ellison succeeds Ben Parrish, who previously announced his plans to retire from the Company following the appointment of a successor and a transition period,” posted Tractor Supply Company in their Newsroom.

Read the article.