

Trucking Giant Agrees to $6.8 Million Settlement in Case Alleging Fraud

“Yellow Corporation has agreed to a multi-million dollar settlement in a lawsuit filed by the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) alleging the trucking giant engaged in fraud. In an announcement last week, Yellow Corp. said it has reached a $6.8 million settlement to end a legal battle with the,” reports Transportation Nation in their blog.

“We are pleased to have come to a resolution, said Darren Hawkins, CEO of Yellow. Now we can continue to focus on the important work ahead. With our nation’s current supply chain constraints and the critical role Yellow plays in delivering freight, there’s no time for distraction Specifically, the United States lawsuit filed in 2018 alleged that.”
