

Tucker Arensberg Welcomes New Attorney to the Firm

PITTSBURGH, October 11, 2021 – on Monday, October 4th Tucker Arensberg welcomed Brett Flower to our firm. Prior to joining Tucker Arensberg, P.C., Brett was counsel for the Pennsylvania Health Insurance Exchange Authority d/b/a Pennie where she advised on regulatory compliance matters and handled the agency's administrative appeals. Previously, Brett worked for a Camp Hill based law firm in their civil litigation, municipal, and administrative law practice groups. During this time Brett had the opportunity to represent a local business owner before the Pennsylvania Supreme Court against the Department of Labor & Industry, Office of Unemployment Compensation Tax Services, following an audit and finding by the Commonwealth that some individuals working for the business were improperly classified as independent contractors.

Prior to pursuing a legal career, Brett graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Environmental Policy and Planning and a minor in Watershed Management. Passionate about natural resources, Brett decided to attend law school as the most effective avenue to address the environmental issues of a modern world. Brett's appreciation for the outdoors and conservation originates from her lifelong involvement riding and showing horses. Brett understands the industry and how to minimize the risks involved in a dangerous and uncertain sport. To learn more about Brett, visit: Brett C. Flower | Tucker Arensberg, P.C. \(tuckerlaw.com\)