

Turner Padgett Continues Growth With Addition of Two Attorneys

Turner Padgett is pleased to announce the addition of two new associates to its Insurance and Products Liability practice group. George “Buster” Bryan joins the Myrtle Beach office and Megan Rudd joins in Greenville.

Bryan previously clerked for the Honorable Gregory P. McGuire at the North Carolina Business Court in Raleigh, N.C. While in law school, he was a member of the Moot Court Bar and served on the school’s Pro Bono Board as a probate special visitors volunteer, and also worked as a legal writing tutor and teacher’s assistant. Bryan earned his undergraduate degree from Coastal Carolina University and his law degree from the University of South Carolina School of Law.

Rudd focuses her practice on general civil litigation with an emphasis on complex products defense. She previously served as a judicial clerk to the Honorable Joseph F. Anderson, Jr. of the United States District Court in the District of South Carolina. Rudd earned her undergraduate degree from the University of South Carolina and her law degree from the University of South Carolina School of Law.

Turner Padgett exceeds expectations by taking your interests, your business and our relationships personally. Our depth of knowledge, technical strength and diverse experience makes us sharp, talented business thinkers able to see our clients’ needs holistically and get to the core of the problem quickly. As one of South Carolina’s largest law firms, Turner Padgett has expanded into neighboring states with offices located in Augusta, Charleston, Columbia, Florence, Greenville and Myrtle Beach, along with strategic alliances in Florida and North Carolina.