

Tyler Greenwood joins Chamberlain Hrdlicka's Houston Office as Associate

HOUSTON – (October 13, 2020) – Tyler Greenwood recently joined the Houston office of the national law firm, Chamberlain Hrdlicka, as an associate in the Bankruptcy, Restructuring and Creditors Rights practice.

Prior to joining Chamberlain Hrdlicka, Greenwood held the role of judicial law clerk for The Honorable Eduardo V. Rodriguez of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court in the Southern District of Texas. At Chamberlain Hrdlicka, his practice will concentrate on commercial litigation with a focus on restructuring and bankruptcy.

Greenwood graduated from the University of South Florida with a bachelor's degree in political science. He received his JD degree from the Emory University School of Law, where he acted as managing editor for the Emory Bankruptcy Developments Journal. During law school, Greenwood took an interest in civil litigation and bankruptcy, gaining experience while serving as a Legal Extern for the U.S. Dept. of Justice Trustee Program and a Student Honors Intern for the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission in their reorganization and enforcement divisions. Greenwood is a member of the State Bar of Florida and is admitted to practice in the Southern Districts of Florida and Texas. Greenwood is also an Eagle Scout, and a member of the Order of the Arrow.
