U.S. Hydrocarbon Exports – LNG

Oil & Gas Journal will present a complimentary webinar on U.S. liquified natural gas policy, covering the problems and potential for export.

The webinar will be Friday, Nov. 14, beginning at 11:30 a.m. Eastern time. The event will last approximately one hour.

The presentation is the third in a trilogy of webcasts focusing on the broad topic of U.S. hydrocarbon exports, the Oil & Gas Journal says on its website.

These and other topics will be discussed, with the latest thoughts on U.S. LNG export policy.

Speakers will be Asish Mohanty, Senior Director, Galway Group; and James F. Bowe, Jr., Partner, King & Spalding's Global Energy Practice.
