

Uhrichsville City Council Approves Contracts for Police, Fire, Street Department Employees

“City Council approved three-year contracts with three city employee unions at a special meeting Monday evening. The three contracts include raises ranging between 3% and 4% annually and bonuses for working during the COVID-19 pandemic. Employees will pay a larger share of insurance premiums,” reports Nancy Molnar in Times Reporter.

“Council unanimously approved the contract for the Fraternal Order of Police Lodge No. 4. Councilman Matthew Fox voted against the collective bargaining agreement for Local 1958 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, which represents street department workers. Members James Zucal, Amy Myers.”
