

Victor Biryukov Appointed as Veon Group General Counsel

“A leading global provider of connectivity and internet services, announced today that Victor Biryukov has been appointed as Veon’s Group General Counsel effective January 1, 2022, succeeding Scott Dresser who, as previously communicated, will step down from this position Victor will join the Group,” reports PR Newswire in their blog.

“Executive Committee from Beeline Russia, where he is currently the Vice-President for Legal, Government Relations and Compliance, and a member of the Management Board. In his new role, Victor will report to VEON CEO Kaan Terzioglu, leading VEON’s legal team, supporting the execution of the Group’s strategic initiatives.”

Read the article.