

Visa Promotes General Counsel to New CLO Post

“Visa has promoted general counsel Kelly Mahon Tullier to the newly created post of executive vice president, chief legal and administrative officer,” reports Ben Maiden in Corporate Secretary’s Appointments.

“Kelly Mahon Tullier joined company in 2014 as general counsel and corporate secretary.”

“In her new role, Tullier continues to oversee the company’s legal and compliance functions and also takes responsibility for managing the global communications and corporate services teams. The latter includes corporate real estate, aviation, security and global events.”

Read the article.