

Ward, Smith & Hill Founder Earns Top 100 Honors in Texas Super Lawyers 2021 Guide

Six firm attorneys recognized in this year's legal guide for expertise in intellectual property, personal injury litigation

LONGVIEW, Texas – Ward, Smith & Hill founder Johnny Ward has earned a spot among the Top 100 attorneys in Dallas-Fort Worth in the Texas Super lawyers 2021 guide, an honor he has received since 2003.

The guide honors six firm attorneys in this year's listing. Name partner Wesley Hill, Of Counsel T. John Ward, and partners Chad Everingham and Claire Abernathy Henry earned recognition for their expertise in intellectual property litigation, with name partner Bruce Smith earning selection for his work with plaintiffs involved in personal injury disputes.

Every year the prestigious listing highlights top-rated attorneys after a thorough research and vetting process that involves peer nominations and extensive editorial research. Thomson Reuters publishes the annual list in the October editions of Texas Monthly and Super Lawyers magazines. The full list is available at <http://www.superlawyers.com>.
