

Waterton Hires William Aguiar as Associate General Counsel

“Waterton, a national real estate investor and operator, today announced the hiring of William Aguiar as associate general counsel in Chicago,” released Waterton in RE Journals.

“As a seasoned legal professional, Aguiar brings over 20 years of legal and operations experience to the firm. In his role, Aguiar will work closely with Waterton’s general counsel and legal team, providing legal leadership and strategic advice to management and assisting with all corporate legal and regulatory matters. This includes matters pertaining to risk management and mitigation, insurance, litigation, closing transactions, human resources, operations management and compliance.”

Read the article.