

Webinar: Managing Rapid Change around COVID-19 with Onit Apps

As we all work through this unprecedented time, Onit is prioritizing ways to help ease the strain of such dramatic business and social change. To that end, Onit is offering free business continuity Apps to help organizations better cope with the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic. These are designed to address three key areas: managing a remote workforce, overseeing business changes and mitigating company risk.

Watch this recording to:

- Learn more about available and planned workflows
- Understand how your teams inside and outside the legal department can leverage them
- Hear about Onit's new Lean Into LegalOps program, launched in response to our new digital reality
