

Webinar: What's Next for FLSA Compliance: Proven Strategies to Minimize Risk

HR Daily Advisor will present a complimentary webinar discussing what the overtime changes mandated by the U.S. Department of Labor FLSA mean for employers and recommend strategies for meeting these new challenges.

The event, sponsored by Kronos, will be Thursday, August 25, beginning at 2 p.m. EDT.

The overtime changes will extend overtime pay protections to more than four million American workers, HR Daily Advisor says on its website. The implications are enormous, affecting everything from job classifications and time tracking to compensation and compliance policies.
