

Wellspan Health Announces Appointment of New Senior Vice President and General Counsel

“WellSpan Health has named Amy Nelson as senior vice president and general counsel for the health system, effective April 2, 2021,” posts WellSpan Health in their News.

“Nelson is currently the vice president and deputy general counsel for WellSpan Health and has been with the organization since 2004.”

“In her new role, Nelson will be responsible for complex legal, regulatory and compliance counsel while supporting the health system in meeting strategic, operational and fiduciary responsibilities. She will play an integral role in the evaluation of quality and safety matters as well as mitigation of risks. She also supports the governance function of the WellSpan Board of Directors.”

Read the article.