

What Employers Need to Know About Background Checks

✖ Imperative Information Group offers an on-demand webinar on conducting employee background checks and the myriad products available to meet legal compliance requirements.

With increased focus on background check issues from the EEOC and the plaintiffs' attorneys, HR professionals need to understand what information to request from their background screening partner and how to use it legally, Imperative Information Group says on its website.

In this one-hour presentation, approved for one hour of general recertification credit, Mike Coffey will cover a variety of topics related to employment background investigations, including:

- I. The Case for Background Screening
- II. Strengths and Weaknesses of Criminal Background Screening Tools
- III. Verification of Credentials and Work History
- IV. The Fair Credit Reporting Act
- V. Title VII and EEOC Scrutiny of Background Checks
- VI. State Law Considerations
- VII . Identity Theft in Criminal Records
