

William Fenrich Joins Rockefeller Capital Management as General Counsel

“Rockefeller Capital Management... announced the appointment of William ‘Billy’ Fenrich as General Counsel. Fenrich will be a member of the Executive Committee and will be based in New York,” was posted in BusinessWire.

“Prior to joining Rockefeller, Fenrich was the Chief Legal Officer at AQR Capital Management and a member of the firm’s Operating Committee. Previously, Fenrich was the Global Chief Compliance Officer for Morgan Stanley and a member of the firm’s Management and Risk Committees. Fenrich also served as General Counsel and Chief Operating Officer of Point State Capital, from its 2010 spin-out from Duquesne Capital until 2014. He started his career at Davis Polk & Wardwell in 1999 and was named partner in 2005.”

Read the article.