

Womble Strengthens Real Estate Group in Baltimore

BALTIMORE (June 7, 2023) – Womble Bond Dickinson announced today that Keith O. Hinder Jr. has joined the firm's Real Estate group in Baltimore. Hinder represents clients in commercial real estate transactions, including the purchase, sale, financing, development, and leasing of all types of commercial properties. He is also an experienced litigator, representing clients in real estate litigation, tax appeals, general commercial litigation, construction litigation, and insurance coverage matters.

"Keith has spent his entire career practicing in Maryland, giving him a uniquely deep understanding of the state's real estate landscape," said Barry Herman, Managing Partner of the Baltimore office. "His diverse experience representing clients in both commercial real estate transactions and litigation matters will further benefit our clients, and we could not be more pleased to welcome him to Womble."

Active within the legal and real estate communities, Hinder is a member of the Maryland State Bar Association, NAIOP Maryland, and the Urban Land Institute. Since 2018, he has been selected to the Maryland Super Lawyers Rising Stars List. Hinder joins Womble from Niles, Barton & Wilmer. Before private practice, he served in several in-house positions, including Claims Litigation Counsel at GEICO Insurance Company. He started his legal career as a law clerk to former Judge Thomas E. Marshall of the Maryland Third Circuit Court in Harford County.

Hinder earned his J.D. from the University of Baltimore School of Law and B.A. from Gettysburg College.
