

Wynn Resorts' GC Exits, Adding Turmoil in Founder's Wake

Bloomberg is reporting that Wynn Resorts Ltd., whose founder stepped down earlier this year over allegations of sexual harassment, said General Counsel Kim Sinatra left her position, marking another high-profile change at the casino company.

Reporters Rob Golum and Scott Moritz write: "Her departure follows other top-level moves at the Las Vegas-based company since the resignation of Chief Executive Officer Steve Wynn in February. Six board members announced they were leaving; three new ones were added, all of them women. Meanwhile, the new CEO, Matt Maddox, has been trying to distance the company from the regime of his predecessor, even going so far as to drop the Wynn name from the new casino the company is building near Boston."

Sinatra has been general counsel at Wynn since 2004.

Read the Bloomberg article.