

Ygrene Expands Executive Leadership Team with New General Counsel

“Ygrene, one of the nation’s leading property improvement financing providers, announced today that John Apostle has been appointed as General Counsel. In this role, Apostle will oversee all legal and compliance matters, providing strategic guidance to the Executive Leadership Team and Board of Directors,” reports Business Wire in their blog.

“Apostle joins Ygrene after 30 years working in the financial services, investments, and insurance industry. Previously, he spent time in private practice in addition to working for SunTrust Bank, GE Capital, and Genworth Financial, developing a holistic view of business best practices. Apostle is an expert in implementing meaningful.”

Read the article.