Preservation Case Law – Winter 2016

Zapproved Inc. has made available for download a new publication called The Word from the Top: New Rules Amendments are a "Big Deal." This resource covers the latest opinions and trends in preservation case law.

"As we enter 2016, it marks the beginning of a new era in the federal civil judiciary with the implementation of the revisions to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on December 1, 2015," the company says. "This was the culmination of a five-year process that showed unprecedented engagement from all parties in the civil justice system."
